A TRIBUTE TO GEORGE MICHAEL MEXICO CITY MAGIC
LUNCH AT GRANGE HALL

Colorist Charlie Price knows a thing or two about looking good.

GOOD GROOMING

"I live half my life in Tulum, Mexico, so I can't escape the sun," says Charlie Price, owner of Dallas' Charlie + Co. and its brand-new sister salon in Fort Worth. Therefore, the in-demand colorist makes monthly visits to Enlighten MD, where founder Kari Feinstein keeps his skin in tip-top shape. "Kari takes care of all the lasering and zapping she has to do for all the sun damage," he says. Besides his monthly med-spa appointments, Price takes weekly trips to Foot Therapy for an hourlong foot and leg massage: "I do this every single Monday morning before I start my day." Other than that, Price says he's pretty low-maintenance, but there are, it turns out, a few products he can't live without. charlieandco.com —Rhonda Reinhart

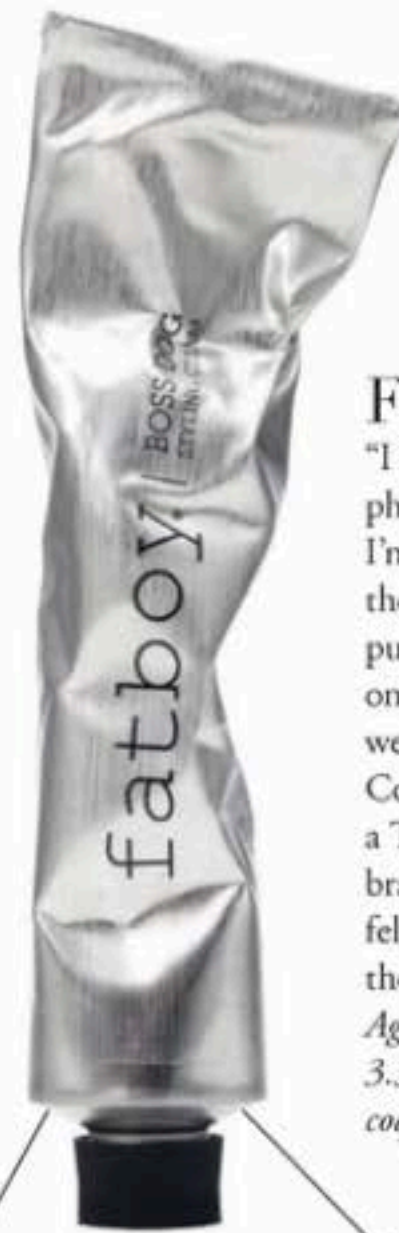

Body Cleanser

"My Aēsop body wash is so fragrant, it makes my shower an experience." Geranium leaf body cleanser, 17 oz. for $45, NorthPark Center, 8687 N. Central Expressway, aesop.com

Styling Cream

"I have such naturally curly, out-of-control hair that I kind of keep it simple. I use a product called Fatboy Boss Dog styling cream. I love it because it's so light and it's full of antihumectants." $21, fatboyhair.com

Fragrance

"I could leave my phone at home, but I'm not walking out the door without putting fragrance on. What I'm wearing now is Coqui Coqui. It's a Tulum-based brand, and I just fell in love with their fragrances." Agua de Colonia, 3.3 fl. oz. for $88, coquicoqui.com

Face Moisturizer

"One of my go-tos is my Malin+Goetz face moisturizer. I use it every day." 8.5 oz. for $84, Stag Provisions for Men, 4525 Cole Ave., Ste. 140, 214.599.2143, stagprovisions.com; malinandgoetz.com

Beard Trimmer

"My Wahl trimmer is what I groom my beard with, and I do that once a week, but that's really the only tool in my repertoire." Lithium ion stainless steel trimmer, $70, home.wahl.com
